

Which artists have the most tracks starting with 'The'?

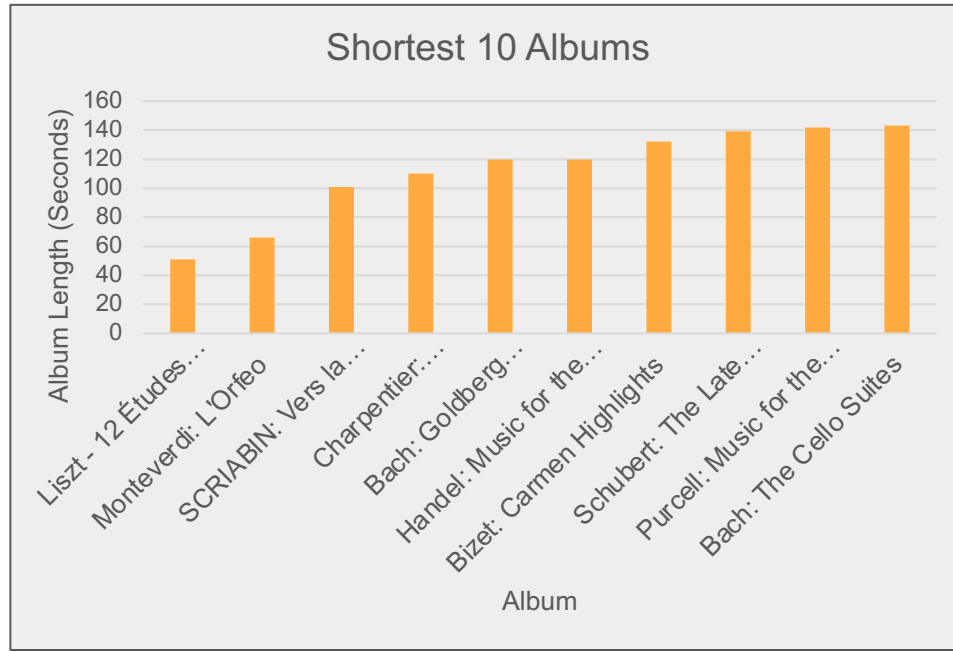

We can see here that the artist with the most number of tracks that start with 'The' is Iron Maiden with 213 tracks followed by U2 with 135 tracks. Although this may be because Iron Maiden has the highest total tracks overall.

Which artists have customers spent the most on?

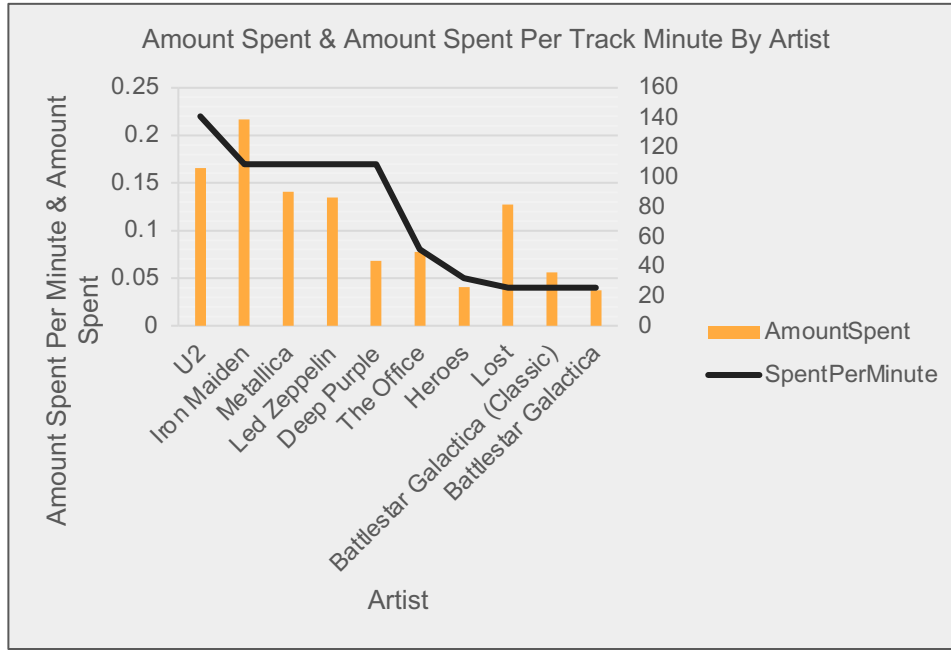

The highest spend has been on Iron Maiden, with just under $140 has been spent by customers on their tracks, followed by U2 with just over $100.

Which are the shortest 10 Albums?

There appears to be various classical albums with very short album lengths with the shortest being "Liszt - 12 Études D'Execution Transcendante" with a total of 51 seconds worth of tracks in the album.

What is the relationship between amount spent per minute of track?

This graph is based on the artists who have a total of 200 total minutes of tracks, with the total amount spent by artist as well as the amount spent per minute of track. For most of the artists, the higher the amount spend, the higher spend per minute. One of the outliers is for 'Lost' where there appears to be a higher amount spent, but the spend per minute remains low and 'Deep Purple' is the opposite.